By car:

Selby Road is just off Pitshanger Lane, about 5 mins from the Hanger Lane (travelling out of London) or Perivale (travelling in to London) exits from the A40 Western Avenue. Free parking is available in Selby Road and surrounding roads.

From A40 westbound (ie leaving London)

Look out for Park Royal underground station on the left and take the next exit, which is the Hanger Lane junction (signposted A406 North Circular amongst other things). Head straight across the Hanger Lane junction following signs back on to the A40 Oxford. Once on the slip road apparently rejoining the road you've just left, signal left and turn into Lynwood Road (go slowly in case you miss it). You quickly come to a crossroads - turn right into Brunswick Road. Stay on this round a couple of sharp bends - it becomes Brunner Road and then Pitshanger Lane. Once in Pitshanger Lane, you soon pass a big church (St Barnabas) on your right. Selby Road is the fourth on the right after St Barnabas. Look out for Atlantis Greek Restaurant on the corner and we're immediately behind it - the first building on the right in Selby Road, just before number 2. There's a CKUK sign outside.

If you should miss the turn off the A40 into Lynwood Road - rejoin the A40 and take the next exit about half a mile further on. Turn left at the lights into Argyle Road and then follow instructions for A40 eastbound below

From A40 eastbound (ie approaching London)

Take the Perivale exit from the A40. Turn right from the slip road, crossing back over the A40 and continue through the lights into Argyle Road. Go straight through the next two sets of lights. At the roundabout turn left on to Scotch Common. At the next roundabout (just after a pub called The Duke of Kent) go straight over, ignoring signs to Ealing Broadway, into Pitshanger Lane. Selby Road is the fourth on the left. Look out for Atlantis Greek Restaurant on the corner and we're immediately behind it - the first building on the right in Selby Road, just before number 2. There's a CKUK sign outside.

From North Circular A406 (heading south, eg from M1)

At the Hanger Lane junction, get in right hand lane and follow signs for A40 Oxford. Once on the slip road leading on to the A40, signal left and turn into Lynwood Road (go slowly in case you miss it). You quickly come to a crossroads - turn right into Brunswick Road. Stay on this round a couple of sharp bends - it becomes Brunner Road and then Pitshanger Lane. Once in Pitshanger Lane, you soon pass a big church (St Barnabas) on your right. Selby Road is the fourth on the right after St Barnabas. Look out for Atlantis Greek Restaurant on the corner and we're immediately behind it - the first building on the right in Selby Road, just before number 2. There's a CKUK sign outside.

If you should miss the turn off the A40 into Lynwood Road - rejoin the A40 and take the next exit about half a mile further on. Turn left at the lights into Argyle Road and then follow instructions for A40 eastbound above.

From North Circular A406 (heading north, eg from M4, M3, Richmond, etc)

Stay on the North Circular till you reach Ealing Common. Turn left at the lights along the Uxbridge Road, following signs to Ealing Broadway. After half a mile you come into the centre of Ealing. Once on Ealing Broadway look out for traffic lights with Marks and Spencer on your left. Turn right (there's a filter) at those lights up Springbridge Road past HMV. Turn left at the top into Castlebar Road and almost immediately right into Eaton Rise. Stay on this road, which becomes Woodfield Road, until you reach a T junction with a large church (St Barnabas) ahead of you. Turn left into Pitshanger Lane and Selby Road is the fourth on the right. Look out for Atlantis Greek Restaurant on the corner and we're immediately behind it - the first building on the right in Selby Road, just before number 2. There's a CKUK sign outside.

By train/underground:

Get any train to Ealing Broadway – via Central Line, District Line or main line from Paddington.

From Ealing Broadway station:

1. Walk - about 25 mins. Follow your A-Z, but roughly the route is Haven Green, Eaton Rise, Woodfield Road, Pitshanger Lane.
2. Taxi - there's a rank directly outside the station. Ask for Selby Road, off Pitshanger Lane. Takes about 5 mins.
3. Bus - take the E2 or E9 bus and ask for Pitshanger Lane.

You want stop "E", the second one you come to on Haven Green (straight ahead of you when you come out of the station: cross the pedestrian crossing and pass a Polish deli and Irish bar on your left)

Pitshanger Lane is the first road with shops that you come to after Ealing Broadway (5-10 mins) and the stop you want is announced as "Harrow View Road". The bus stops outside Pitshanger Village Bakery. Once you've got off cross the road and walk back a few metres to Selby Road, which is now the first road on your left with John Martin Estates on the corner and Atlantis Greek Restaurant on the other side. Turn left into Selby Road, cross over and we are the first building on the right (marked CKUK The Courtyard), just before number 2.

If you get here early there is a good coffee shop called Cinnamon on Pitshanger Lane.

Don't hesitate to call if you get stuck.
